

Migration 5th/6th class, Lesson 1

Declaration by the President, to be read to the class:

Note to the teacher: This script raises issues that may be sensitive for students with personal experience of expulsion, discrimination or war. Please adapt it as you see fit.

“Fellow citizens. This is your President speaking. Our country can no longer tolerate the presence of this group, whose culture, language and religion are so different from ours. In order to save our nation, I have therefore decided that all members of this group – women, men and children – must leave our country by next Monday. Each member of this group will be allowed to carry one suitcase of personal belongings. All their remaining possessions, including land, houses, businesses and bank accounts, will become the property of the State. Any member of this group who remains within our borders after next Monday will be arrested. “