

Children's work – Examples of Identity Poems

Nathan

Funny friendly opinionated and fun
Son of Mary and Jack ,
Lover of music, hurling and dogs,
Who feels happy when with my friends
Who feels sad when having dreams of falling off high objects,
Who feels worried when my sister is hurt,
Who needs to get earlier to school and life,
Who gives friendship, arguments and presents.
Who fears loosing arguments and the look on Cora's face when I come in at nine thirty and fibre glass,
Who lives in a house.

John

Funny, random and generous
Son of Gerry and Marie
Lover of PS3, black ops and chocolate
Who feels happy when with friends
Who feels sad when not with friends
Who feels angry when good friends turn bad
Who needs friends. PS3 and parents
Who gives love, gifts and joy
Who would like to be a singer or an actor
Who fears dead clowns
Who lives in Croatia and Ireland
